STUDENT GRIEVANCE PORTAL

Procedures for lodging grievances :

- The students with genuine grievance may feel free to approach the members of Student Grievance Redressal & Welfare Committee in person or submit the grievance in prescribed application form online on the college website.
- The committee may if necessary forward the case to other committees, departments, administration, etc. concerned for further action.
- The committee may if required call the complainant for hearing.
- Any action taken on the matter shall be informed to the complainant within a period of 30 working days.

Exclusion :

- Decision made by the university with regard to disciplinary matters, courses offered by the college,
- Decision made by the competent authority on internal assessment, examination pattern, attendance etc.
- The SGR&WC shall consider only individual grievance of specific nature and not grievances raised collectively by group of students/grievance of general applicability.

Students can personally approach the members of the committee during working days
